Presenter: Cheryl Ricci-Francione, Executive Director of the Alzheimer's Association's Greater New Jersey Chapter

Bio: Cheryl Ricci-Francione has served as the Executive Director of the Alzheimer's Association's Greater New Jersey Chapter since 2017. She has 30 years of experience as a not-for-profit business professional. Cheryl is a graduate of Rutgers University and holds a Master of Science degree in Human Services and Not for Profit Executive Management and Leadership from Springfield College. She served as a member of the NJ State Caregivers Task Force during 2020 & 2021, and now serves on New Jersey's Age Friendly Council. Her focus is diversity, inclusion, equity and access for the residents of New Jersey, and our older adult population.
