DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

FINAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. HPW 05790-25 R.M.

AGENCY DKT. NO. C408687007 (ESSEX COUNTY DIVISION OF WELFARE)

Petitioner appeals from the Respondent Agency's denial of Emergency Assistance ("EA") benefits. The Agency denied Petitioner EA benefits, contending that she failed to provide proof she was no longer receiving financial assistance from her family, that she had a realistic capacity to plan and had not done so, and that she had not taken reasonable steps to resolve her emergency. Because Petitioner appealed, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing. On April 7, 2025, the Honorable Patrice E. Hobbs, Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ"), held a plenary hearing, took testimony, and admitted documents. Also on April 7, 2025, the ALJ issued an Initial Decision, reversing the Agency's determination, and remanding the matter back to the Agency.

In order to be eligible for EA benefits, N.J.A.C. 10:90-6.1(c) provides, in pertinent part, that the individual must have an actual or imminent eviction from prior housing, and the assistance unit is in a state of homelessness or imminent homelessness due to circumstances beyond their control or the absence of a realistic capacity to plan to avoid their emergent situation. Documentation must be presented to the Agency demonstrating that an eviction is pending or has occurred. N.J.A.C. 10:90-6.3(a)(1)(ii).

Here, Petitioner, a recipient of Work First New Jersey/Temporary Assistance for Needy Families ("WFNJ/TANF") benefits since October 2024, applied for EA benefits, which she has never previously received, on behalf of herself and her three children. See Initial Decision at 2; see also Exhibit R-3. Petitioner is currently unemployed, but was previously able to obtain financial assistance from her family to pay her rent. See Initial Decision at 2. During January 2025, Petitioner received a Complaint for Eviction, which led to her application for EA benefits on February 11, 2025. Ibid. The Agency denied Petitioner's application on that same date, citing that Petitioner failed to realistically plan, that she took no reasonable steps to resolve her emergency, and that she did not provide proof that her family was no longer able to provide her with financial assistance. Id. at 3; see also Exhibit R-2. The ALJ found that the record was devoid of any requests for further information or verifications from Petitioner as to the provision of information regarding the reasons for the Agency's denial. See Initial Decision at 4. Further, the ALJ found there is no proof that Petitioner refused to provide any information to the Agency. Ibid. Accordingly, the ALJ found that the Agency failed to provide Petitioner with the opportunity to verify information or provide any documentation to substantiate the information contained in her EA benefits application and that, in accordance with N.J.A.C. 10:90-1.4(a), the Agency must allow Petitioner sufficient time, of at least 30 days in accordance with the regulation, to provide necessary documents to substantiate her application. Ibid. I agree and, as such, I am remanding this case to the Agency to allow Petitioner to provide the Agency with documentation necessary to expeditiously evaluate her application for EA benefits.

No Exceptions to the Initial Decision were received.
