MEDICAID COMMUNICATION NO. 96-17

DATE: June 18, 1996

TO: County Welfare Directors

SUBJECT: New Jersey Care...Special Medicaid
Programs Fact Sheets

I am pleased to announce the availability of the revised New Jersey Care...Special Medicaid Programs fact sheets, reflecting the 1996 Federal Poverty Levels. Attached is an initial supply of 100 copies each of the "Maternal and Child Health" and the "Aged, Blind and Disabled" versions and 50 copies of each of the same in Spanish. Also included for your use are 100 copies of the Medically Needy version.

Please feel free to distribute these publications in any manner suitable for your agency. Unfortunately, due to budget and space limitations, we will not be maintaining a shelf stock and ask that you produce additional copies as needed beyond this initial supply. Also, for your information, we are planning to distribute New Jersey Care...Special Medicaid Programs fact sheets to selected community agencies throughout the State.

If you have any questions about this communication or need additional information about the fact sheets, please contact Sandra Stangil of the Office of Beneficiary and Provider Services at (609) 588-2936.

Sincerely,

A NEW JERSEY CARE . . . Special Medicaid Program FOR MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH COVERAGE

IF YOU ARE PREGNANT, ARE YOU:

- Unable to afford prenatal care?
- Worried about the hospital cost for your delivery?
- Concerned about receiving proper health care for yourself after delivery?

IF YOU HAVE AN INFANT OR YOUNG CHILD, ARE YOU:

- Wondering how you will pay for health care and immunizations for your child?

You may find the answers to these questions in this New Jersey Care . . . Special Medicaid Program. It provides a real plus in health care -- complete Medicaid coverage to eligible women during their pregnancy and for sixty days following delivery or the date on which pregnancy ends, and to eligible infants and young children. A child born to an eligible woman may be eligible for Medicaid for up to one year regardless of changes in the family's income.

TO QUALIFY FOR SERVICES, YOU MUST BE:

- a pregnant woman, or
 - a child born after September 30, 1983
 - a resident of the State of New Jersey
- AND
- you must meet this Special Medicaid Program income guidelines.

A NEW JERSEY CARE . . . Special Medicaid Program

MEDICALLY NEEDY SEGMENT

Have you been denied Medicaid in the past because your income or assets were too high?

Have you lost your Medicaid and Supplemental Security Income payments because you receive Social Security Disability payments?

Are you 65 years of age or older, but still have high medical bills which are not covered by Medicare?

Do you have young children who need medical care that you cannot afford?

Are you pregnant? Unable to afford prenatal care? Are you worried about the hospital cost for your delivery?

The Medically Needy Program may help you. It provides medical coverage to certain needy individuals who may not be able to afford health care services, and who do not qualify for the regular Medicaid program.

TO QUALIFY FOR SERVICES, you must be

- A pregnant woman
- A needy child (under 21 years of age)
- Aged (65 years of age or older)
- Blind or disabled

AND

- Your income must fall at or below certain limits. You may meet the income limit immediately or at a later time after using a special "spend-down" method described on the reverse side. If you are over the asset limit, you cannot be eligible for the Medically Needy Program.

MEDICALLY NEEDY INCOME AND ASSET LIMITS

Family Size	1	2	3	4	5	6
Maximum Monthly Income	$367	$434	$567	$659	$742	$825
Maximum Current Assets	$4,000	$6,000	$6,100	$6,200	$6,300	$6,400

| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Money in bank accounts - A car in certain situations* - Property OTHER than that in which you live - Stocks, bonds, or certificates of deposit | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Trust funds or retirement accounts - Some life insurance policies - Some personal effects - Some household goods |

*a car needed for work or transportation for medical treatment is not counted

IF YOUR MONTHLY INCOME IS TOO HIGH, you may still be able to meet the program's income limit by subtracting certain items that fit your situation. For example:

Families with needy children can subtract

- $90 of wages for each employed person,
- $50 of total child support received, and
- the actual cost of child care up to a maximum of:

Parent(s) Employed Full-Time

Parent(s) Employed Part-Time

Child Under Age 2	$200	$150
Other Children	$175	$135

Aged, blind and disabled persons can subtract the first $20 of unearned income (such as Social Security or pension income).

You might be able to meet the income limit in another way. The Medically Needy Program uses a unique process called "spend down". "Spend down" is the process of subtracting certain medical bills and health insurance premiums from your income until it is equal to the monthly income limit you must reach.

For Example:

- you are applying just for yourself; there are no others in your family. According to the chart on the reverse side, your monthly income cannot be more than $367 and your assets cannot be more than $4,000.
- Your assets total $3,100. So far you qualify for the program.
- Your monthly income is determined to be $417. This is $50 more than the limit.
- Since eligibility is determined in six-month periods, you will have to "spend down" a total of $300 ($50/month x 6 months) to be eligible for the program.
- Within the next two months, you have several medical bills. They total more than $300.
- You show these bills to the county welfare agency where you applied. You will be eligible for the Medically Needy Program.
