

Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) Waiver Trainings

Making a Difference for People with Addictions

Offered online by New Jersey Practitioners for New Jersey Practitioners

This online MAT Waiver Training Course is developed to help meet the requirements for a buprenorphine waiver certification under DATA 2000 Federal Law. Each session covers core content as well as information about treating patients with substance use disorders in NJ; connecting patients to specialty care & social services; & mentoring and support.

Dates/ Times

All Trainings
9:00am to 2:30pm

Friday,
September 4

Friday,
September 11

Tuesday,
September 15

Thursday,
September 17

Friday,
September 25

Saving Lives – Effective Treatment - NJ Specific Resources – Support from NJ Centers of Excellence

Training and CMEs, Nursing Hours, and Physician Assistant Hours are provided free of charge for those who qualify and complete the training in its entirety.

Target Audience: Physicians, Advance Practice Nurses, Physician Assistants

To REGISTER: Click your preferred Day / Date above.

Please contact tac_training@ubhc.rutgers.edu with questions

Funding for this initiative was made possible (in part) by grant no. 1H79TI081968 from SAMHSA. The views expressed in written conference materials or publications and by speakers and moderators do not necessarily reflect the official policies of the Department of Health and Human Services; nor does mention of trade names, commercial practices, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.

Funding for this program is made possible by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) State Opioid Response Grants Catalogue of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) No. 93.788.

pcssnow.org / pcss@aaap.org / AAAP is the DATA 2000 sponsor for this training.

Division of Mental Health & Addiction Services wellnessrecoveryprevention laying the foundation for healthy communities, together		