

Agency Name	Counties Served	Populations Served	Description	Contact Information	Website
Center for Psychological Services: Rutgers University Graduate School of Applied and Professional Psychology	Bergen, Camden, Essex, Hudson, Hunterdon, Mercer, Middlesex, Monmouth, Passaic, Somerset, Union and Warren Counties	Frontline medical and healthcare workers, including support/allied service workers and their families; youth and families from underserved communities, with a particular focus on foster care and those with autism-spectrum needs, as well as teachers and school personnel providing education to these families; university, college, graduate, medical, law and professional students; individuals and families with medical vulnerabilities and specific risk issues, such as pregnant women, new mothers, those with immunocompromised systems, as well as the medical/healthcare staff that services these groups; and refugees, immigrants and asylees	The mission of the Center for Psychological Services Crisis Counseling Program (CCP) is to assist individuals and communities in recovering from the effects of the COVID19 pandemic through providing community outreach, psychoeducational services, and individual, family and group crisis counseling. Presently, all services are provided virtually through secure telehealth platforms.	njhopeandhealing@rutgers.edu	NJ Hope and Healing-GSAPP