Job Description

The Administrative Analyst 3 (AA3) will work under the direction of the Assistant Commissioner to provide recommendations and lead the implementation of administrative and operational tasks and change management practices needed to support the Office of Employment Accessibility Services encompassing the Division of Disability Services, the Division of Temporary Disability and Family Leave Insurance, and the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation Services. The incumbent will develop and manage the implementation of performance-based support strategies and specialized administrative processes; develop design strategies for EAS projects, programs, performance outcomes and solutions, and lead and/or contribute to effective integrated teams. The AA3 will collect and analyze performance data from the EAS program areas and generate data and reports for the purpose of strategic planning as it relates to the needs of the Assistant Commissioner. Responsibilities will include working with the EAS division leaders and Office of Finance and Accounting and attending fiscal review meetings to support budget activities across the EAS's three divisions. The AA3 will support the Assistant Commissioner on grant proposals and the preparation and review of reports required under the terms of EAS's funding sources.

NOTE: Preference will be given to candidates who demonstrate 1) Exceptional decision-making skills and quality improvement experience to successfully review, analyze and evaluate various operational plans, policies and systems; 2) proven leadership and management skills to move plans to action, promote improvements, develop strategic contingencies, and provide technical assistance as needed to reach intended outcomes, and 3) business acumen.
