Job Description

The Department of Labor and Workforce Development (DOL) provides many benefits to employees to acknowledge and value their contribution. The DOL is in a telework pilot and permits two days of telework. Statewide benefits include health insurance, pension, Flexible Spending Accounts (FSA)/Health Savings Accounts (HSA), life insurance, deferred compensation and more. DOL also provides tuition reimbursement (after nine months of employment), Alternate Workweek Program (determined by division), and employee training.

The individual in this senior-level position reports directly to the Executive Director of Legal and Regulatory Services, (1) acting as the point of contact for the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development with the Office of the Attorney General on pending litigation to which the Department is a party, on requests for advice, and related matters, (2) assisting Departmental program areas with regard to compliance with relevant State and federal laws and rules, (3) assisting with management of the Department-wide Open Public Records Act (OPRA) compliance function, and (4) and assisting with management of the Departmental response to subpoenas and other requests for information. In addition to these functions, the individual in this role serves as the Data Privacy Officer, responsible for protecting the personally identifiable information NJDOL collects, stores, and transmits, and ensuring the confidentiality, integrity, availability, privacy, and safety of the NJDOL's information security program.

This role involves reviewing proposed legislation and evaluating its potential effects on NJDOL program areas, as well as drafting proposed legislation relative to new initiatives undertaken by the department. Finally, this individual will provide critical policy and legal support to the Commissioner, Deputy Commissioners, and Chief of Staff, while effectively prioritizing various projects and policy plans to ensure the department's strategic objectives are met efficiently and in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development
PERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

In accordance with the Uniform Ethics Code adopted by the NJ State Ethics Commission and the State Policy Prohibiting Discrimination in the Workplace, the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development (NJ DOL) requires the disclosure of all relatives, consensual personal relationships, and cohabitants. No NJ DOL employee may supervise or exercise any authority with regard to personnel actions involving their relative, anyone with whom there is a consensual personal relationship, or anyone with whom they cohabit.

Relative means an individual’s spouse/domestic partner/civil union partner¹ or the individual or spouse’s/domestic partner’s/civil union partner’s parent, child, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, cousin, grandparent, grandchild, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, stepparent, stepchild, stepbrother, stepsister, half-brother or half-sister, whether the relative is related to the individual or the individual’s spouse/domestic partner/civil union partner by blood, marriage or adoption.

Consensual personal relationship means marriage, engagement, dating or other ongoing romantic or sexual relationships.

Cohabitant means non-related persons who share a household under circumstances where there is financial interdependence.

The New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development requires the disclosure of all relatives and consensual personal relationships to be promptly reported directly to the Division of Human Capital Strategies (HCS), Director’s Office. Confidentiality shall be maintained to the extent possible and practicable. This information may be shared with NJ DOL’s Equal Employment Opportunity Office and/or the NJ DOL Ethics Office as deemed necessary. Upon receiving notice of the relationship, HCS may address any situation as necessary in consultation with the EEO Office and/or the Ethics Officer. This may include, but is not limited to, the changing of reporting relationships or transferring any of the employees involved. Failure to provide notification to HCS may result in discipline up to and including termination and the denial of legal representation and indemnification by the State in the event that a lawsuit is filed having a connection with a personal relationship. Employees are under a continuing obligation to promptly report personal relationships that develop during the course of their employment.

I DO NOT have a relative or a consensual personal relationship, as defined above, with anyone working for the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development.

I DO have a relative or a consensual personal relationship, as defined above, with anyone working for the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development identified as follows:

| Name | Relationship | Division and Work Location |
|------|--------------|----------------------------|
