

New Jersey Governor's Council on Mental Health Stigma
Eliminating Stigma to Ensure Equity for All

REGISTER TODAY!

Sing! for Mental Health Live Concert:

Exploring Dimensions of Wellness

May 13th, 2026 • 12:30 PM - 4:00 PM

at The College of New Jersey
Brower Student Center Auditorium

1900 Pennington Road, Ewing, NJ 08628

Join us for a vibrant and uplifting afternoon of interactive exhibits and live performances that educate about stigma through music, poetry, dance, and joyful connection!

Enjoy a fun and educational event hosted by Radio 101.5 FM's Eric Scott, along with interactive exhibits—including RWJBarnabas Health's "If Mental Health Took Shape". Explore the "NJ Author Corner," featuring the latest titles from New Jersey's creative mental health community. Learn about the healing power of tribal drumbeats, practice guided breathwork, and absorb a soothing sound bath to restore a sense of well-being.

12:30 PM – Registration & Box Lunch • 1:00 PM – Event begins

REGISTER AT:

 [njamhaa.site-ym.
com/events/register.
aspx?id=2047701](https://njamhaa.site-ym.com/events/register.aspx?id=2047701)

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:

Cynthia Chazen

Coordinator of Community Outreach and Partnerships
New Jersey Governor's Council on Mental Health Stigma
cchazen@njamhaa.org