

DMAVA HIGHLIGHTS

MARCH 8, 2012

Welcome Home Airmen

Photos by Master Sgt. Andrew Moseley, 177th FW/PA

South Plainfield resident, Angelo Paradiso, is applauded by the more than 100 people present at the Medal Ceremony at Bridge-water Commons Mall on March 6. Paradiso, a World War II veteran, was a former private first class in the Army when he stormed Utah Beach during the invasion of Normandy. For his service, Paradiso, was bestowed New Jersey's Distinguished Service Medal with an oak leaf cluster by Brig. Gen. Michael L. Cunniff, the Acting Adjutant General, in the presence of Lt. Gov. Kim Guadagno, various other legislative officials, as well as family and friends. (Photo by Staff Sgt. Armando Vasquez, NJDMAVA/PA)

American Legion to host Hiring Our Heroes event

The American Legion has joined forces with the U.S. and N.J. Chambers of Commerce in support of the Hiring Our Heroes program, a nationwide effort, blossoming here in New Jersey, to help veterans and military spouses find meaningful employment.

Veterans and their spouses are encouraged to take advantage of the Hiring Our Heroes event scheduled on Friday, March 9, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., at American Legion T. Nulty Post 471, 25 Brown Avenue in Iselin.

With the U.S. auto industry looking to add some 30,000 jobs during 2012, many of New Jersey’s 530 auto dealerships and other non-dealer service centers will be looking to fill positions.

Since the launch of the Hiring Our Heroes program on March 2011, more than 7,300 veterans and military spouses, and 60 wounded warriors have found employment.

Please go to www.HoH.GreatJob.net to register as a veteran job seeker, or auto-industry related employer.

Vietnam veteran artist featured at Museum

On Saturday, March 10, at 1 p.m., the New Jersey Vietnam Veterans' Memorial Foundation will host a lecture highlighting the Vietnam Era artwork of late New Jersey veteran Joe Connor.

Connor's wife, Anne, will speak about her husband's artistic legacy including the sketches and poetry he created while serving in Vietnam.

The Museum is currently showcasing Connor's work in its featured exhibit, The Art of Survival. The exhibit features thirty-six of the two-hundred sketches he created during his tour in Vietnam. Connor's images highlight soldiers' experiences, battle scenes, and the Vietnamese landscape. The exhibit is on display through March 10, 2012.

The Vietnam Era Museum & Educational Center is located adjacent to the New Jersey Vietnam Veterans' Memorial off the Garden State Parkway at exit 116. The Educational Center is open Tuesday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Admission is free for veterans and active-duty military personnel. Regular adult admission is $5; student and senior citizen admission is $3 and children under 10 are admitted free. Regular admission applies to all lectures.

Lecture attendees are asked to RSVP to 732-335-0033.

The New Jersey Vietnam Veterans' Memorial Foundation (www.njvvmf.org) is a non-profit organization, which strives to foster patriotism and recognition of the sacrifices, courage and valor of the New Jersey veterans of the Vietnam Era. Dedicated in 1995, the Memorial is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

American Legion Post 43 hosts "Evening of Solid Gold"

The American Legion, Frank Patterson Post 43 will host an "Evening of Solid Gold" performances to raise awareness and funds for wounded and homeless American veterans.

The show will take place at Madison Junior School on Saturday, May 19, at 7 p.m. The event will consist of acts from the 50's and 60's.

A clothing drive for veterans-in-need will also be conducted at the event. Madison Junior School is located at 160 Main Street in Madison, N.J.

Veterans friendly job fair in Newark

Here is an opportunity for New Jersey veterans to show case their talent.

The G.I. Go Fund has teamed up with the Rutgers-Newark Student Veterans Organization to bring the 4th Annual Job and G.I. Bill Fair in Newark, on Tuesday, March 13 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., at Rutgers-Newark's Paul Robeson Campus Center.

The purpose of the event is to connect veterans to jobs, as well as benefits, job training opportunities and colleges.

Register for this free event and meet with employers, colleges, support services and benefit providers by visiting the G.I. Go Fund's Website at: www.gigofund.org/veteransjobfairvets.html, or contact Alexander Manis, deputy director for G.I. Go Veterans Transition Center of Newark, at 973-802-1614 or via email at manias@ci.newark.nj.us.

Since its founding, The GI Go Fund has worked tirelessly to help veterans of all conflicts, but particularly those who served in Iraq and Afghanistan, who struggle with employment, benefits, education, and financial difficulties such as homelessness.

The Paul Robeson Campus Center is located at 350 Martin Luther King Boulevard in Newark.

Vietnam Veteran's foundation hosts benefit seminar in April

The New Jersey Vietnam Veterans' Memorial Foundation in conjunction with the Veterans Administration Health Care Community Outreach Team invites you to a FREE seminar on Saturday, April 14, at the Vietnam Era Museum and Education Center from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Come to this informative event and learn about the VA health care system. At 10:15 a.m., there will be a 45-minute presentation regarding health care eligibility and benefits followed by a questions-and-answers session.

Any veteran that is currently enrolled and wants to learn more about their health care benefits is encouraged to attend, and also learn about non-health related benefits such as: home loans, life insurance, filing disability claims, and death and burial benefits.

Furthermore, a VA mobile health unit will be on site for any "eligible" veteran to receive a brief health care assessment, including blood pressure check and patient education. Any veteran seeking information about how to enroll in the VA health care system should bring their DD-214.

Attendees are asked to RSVP their attendance to 732-335-0033.

The Educational Center is located at the New Jersey Vietnam Veterans' Memorial off Exit 116 in the Garden State Parkway.
