Posted @withregram • @us.nationalguard May is Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month, and all month long we'll be sharing photos and a little bit about our National Guard members to celebrate how they're contributing to the force today. Airman 1st Class Ruey (Richie) Luu, of the @njnationalguard, calls being a part of the @177thfw the best decision of his life. He says this observance means "that America is a nation united in one fight. It doesn't matter what part of a continent you're originally from, but what you bring to the table. I'm proud to serve and contribute as an American of Taiwanese descent and contribute to the Air Force with the skills I've been taught." To learn more, click on the link in our profile.
