RETIREMENT AND CASH DISTRIBUTIONS

A vested member of the ABP or the DCRP becomes eligible to commence distributions at any age upon severance from employment or retirement. Members may receive benefits in the form of an annuity or cash distribution. Annuity benefits will be calculated by the Designated Service Provider (DSP) based upon the account accumulation, life expectancy, and the distribution option selected. Participation in the ABP or DCRP shall terminate and the individual shall be considered retired once he or she has elected to receive a cash distribution of the value of his or her accounts in a direct payout as a cash distribution, a rollover, or an annuity (or a combination of these distributions.) The member is considered retired and is not eligible to enroll in any New Jersey State-administered retirement system, nor are they eligible to reenroll in or receive any other benefits afforded under the ABP or DCRP. This includes long-term disability coverage.

ABP Only: Cash distributions to members under the age of 55 are limited to their employee contributions and accumulations. The remaining employer contributions and earnings are available for distribution upon attaining age 55.

I hereby acknowledge that I have read and understand my election to withdraw funds from my mandatory 401(a) account.
