

TAX ASSESSOR EXAMINATION TO BE OFFERED IN MARCH

The next New Jersey Certified Tax Assessor examination will be Saturday, March 19, 2016. The deadline for filing applications for the exam is February 18, 2016. The test will be held at the Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex, 25 Market Street, 4th Floor Conference Room A in Trenton, N.J.

A Tax Assessor Certificate is required to hold the position of Certified Tax Assessor in the State of New Jersey. Certificates are granted only to those who pass this examination.

Exams are offered twice each year, in March and September. John J. Ficara, Acting Director of the Division of Taxation, said the purpose of the Assessor Certification and Tenure Act, which became law in 1967, is to ensure assessors and administrators are properly trained in property tax laws and the State has sufficient numbers of trained, career professionals to ensure a uniform and fair property tax system.

To obtain an application for the assessor examination, write to Marilyn E. Gaines: P.O. Box 240, Trenton, NJ 08695-0240 or call (609) 292-8823. Applicants also may fill out a PDF version of the application . A $10.00 fee must accompany the completed application.
