NJ - New Jersey Administrative Code > TITLE 13. LAW AND PUBLIC SAFETY > CHAPTER 64. PERSONAL WATERCRAFT OPERATION > SUBCHAPTER 1. DESIGNATION OF RENTAL OPERATION AREA

§ 13:64-1.1 Operation prohibited

(a) No person engaged in the business of renting personal watercraft for use on the waters of this State shall permit a person to operate a rented personal watercraft unless the operator is 16 years of age or older and has proof of age and that he or she successfully completed a boat safety course approved by the Superintendent of State Police pursuant to N.J.S.A. 12:7-60, or has proof of successful completion of a boat safety course substantially similar to an approved boat safety course, unless the business has been issued a permit for a personal watercraft rental operation area pursuant to this chapter. For the purposes of this section proof of completion of a substantially similar boat safety course means written proof of completion of a boat safety course endorsed or approved by another state, the National Association of State Boating Law Administrators or its successor organization, or the United States Coast Guard.

(b) Persons engaged in the business of renting personal watercraft may rent personal watercraft to persons 16 years of age or older without proof of completion of a boat safety course upon issuance of a permit by the Superintendent subject to the requirements of this chapter.
