MEDIA RELEASE – MAY 17, 2019

HUNTERDON AND WARREN COUNTY PROSECUTOR'S OFFICES ANNOUNCE TOWN HALL MEETING TO DISCUSS JUVENILE JUSTICE

Acting Hunterdon County Prosecutor Michael J. Williams and Warren County Prosecutor Richard T. Burke have announced that their offices will be hosting a town hall meeting to discuss some of the topics impacting juvenile justice. The meeting is scheduled for May 29, 2019, at 5:00 PM at North Hunterdon High School in Clinton Township.

This town hall meeting is part of a new initiative mandated by the New Jersey Attorney General's Office. The initiative is named the "21/21 Community Policing Project," and is intended to discuss issues relevant to community policing in the 21st century in all 21 counties of the state.

According to Attorney General Gurbir Grewal, "The goal of our '21/21 Project' is to bridge those divides by bringing law enforcement together with community leaders and stakeholders, encouraging dialogue on critical issues, and building relationships of trust that will continue after these meetings are adjourned."

Acting Prosecutor Williams added, "One of the topics of discussion will be teen technology and the influence it has on today's youth. We will also discuss the ongoing issue of drug use and vaping in our schools. These are very important issues that not only affect students, parents, and teachers, but also the community."
