 This program will also be simulcast as a webinar.

Program Summary

Propounding and responding to discovery does not have to be a painful obligation. Instead, discovery can be a critically useful tool which can form the contours of a case to fit your client's position. This presentation will address the process for developing a written discovery plan, drafting written discovery to execute the plan and analyzing responses to written discovery. The presenter will also discuss techniques and approaches that will assist attorneys when drafting discovery responses.

Eligibility

This program is open to deputy and assistant attorneys general in the Divisions of Law, Alcoholic Beverage Control, Gaming Enforcement, and Administration, as well as DAsG/AAsG in the offices of OLEPS and EEO.

Faculty

DAG Joseph M. Micheletti is the Section Chief of the Tort Litigation and Judiciary Section of the Division of Law, where he manages a group of trial attorneys and handles the defense of complex tort and civil rights cases brought against State agencies and their employees.
