Dear FOIA Officer,

The Office of the New Jersey Attorney General submits this Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to obtain important information about significant changes to the World Trade Center Health Program (WTC Health Program) proposed in the President's budget for fiscal year 2019. Specifically, the President has proposed moving the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH), which houses and supports the WTC Health Program, from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) to the National Institutes of Health (NIH), separating NIOSH and the WTC Health Program.

The WTC Health Program reflects our nation's shared commitment to first responders and survivors of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, by providing them with critical medical monitoring, health evaluations, and treatment for physical and mental health conditions related to 9/11. More than 80,000 individuals participate in the program. New Jersey is one of the States with the highest number of residents enrolled, and New Jersey State Police under the Attorney General's command are among those who have benefited from the program.

Many have voiced concerns that the President's proposal to move NIOSH to NIH, if adopted, would negatively affect the WTC Health Program's ability to provide important benefits to 9/11 responders and survivors. See, e.g., Citizens for the Extension of the James Zadroga Act, OMB Proposal Threatens Health of Injured and Ill 9/11 Responders and Survivors, <http://www.renew911health.org/omb-proposal-threatens-health-of-injured-and-ill-9-11-responders-and-survivors>; Marisa Schultz, Jon Stewart Joins 9/11 First Responders To Save Health Program, N.Y. Post (Mar. 5, 2018), <https://nypost.com/2018/03/05/jon-stewart-joins-9-11-first-responders-to-save-health-program>. To better understand the President's proposal and assist those of its residents who are affected, New Jersey seeks information about what consideration (if any) the federal government gave to the views of 9/11 responders and survivors before the President offered his proposal and what analysis (if any) the federal government performed to evaluate how the proposal might affect the WTC Health Program.

Requested Records

Please promptly produce the following records:

1. All records of CDC's analysis of whether or how the WTC Health Program would be affected by separating the WTC Health Program from NIOSH or by separating NIOSH from the CDC, including but not limited to whether or how such reorganization might adversely affect the delivery of services through the WTC Health Program.
2. All records reflecting any consultations, meetings, or other communications between CDC (or any of its personnel) and any of the following persons or entities about separating the WTC Health Program from NIOSH or about separating NIOSH from the CDC:
  - a. The Administrator of the WTC Health Program;
  - b. The WTC Responders Steering Committee, the WTC Survivors Steering Committee, or any member of either committee;
  - c. Any other 9/11 first responder or survivor enrolled in the WTC Health Program;
