I. Overview:

The New Jersey Pinelands Commission is seeking the services of an Historic Architect for the development of a Preservation Plan for historic Fenwick Manor in New Lisbon, Burlington County New Jersey. All consultants must meet or exceed the Secretary of the Interior Professional Qualifications Standards¹ and provide documentation of prior experience with the development of Preservation Plan documents in their formal proposal. The Commission is applying for a grant from the New Jersey Historic Trust (NJHT) Preserve New Jersey Historic Preservation Fund for Historic Site Management. Any award of a contract pursuant to this Request for Proposal (RFP) is contingent upon receipt of these grant funds.

Questions regarding this RFP shall be submitted no less than 10 days prior to the closing date. All such questions must be submitted via email to Tony McNichol, the Commission's staff archaeologist: RFP@pinelands.nj.gov.

This RFP describes the services required for this project. The intent of this RFP is to award a contract to a qualified consultant whose bid proposal is most advantageous to the Commission, price and other factors considered. However, as discussed above, an award of a contract under this RFP is contingent upon the Commission receiving grant funds from the NJHT.

All submissions must be received by the RFP closing date. Incomplete submissions and submissions received after the closing date will not be accepted.

The building is an active office space and must remain functional during this project. The safety of the staff and visitors are of the utmost importance.

All questions must be submitted electronically. All questions and responses will be posted on the Commission's website at: <https://www.nj.gov/pinelands/> under the Business Center section as an addendum to the RFP.

LOCATION:

New Jersey Pinelands Commission Headquarters
Fenwick Manor Building A
15C Springfield Road
New Lisbon, New Jersey 08064
(609) 894-7300

A pre-bid site visit to the Fenwick Manor is strongly recommended, as it will help bidders gain a better understanding of the space, site constraints and the Commission's business operations. Site visits will be done on an appointment basis. All on-site visits by potential consultant teams must be conducted during normal business hours (7:00 am to 5:00 pm, Monday through Friday). Please contact Jessica Lynch at (609) 894-7300, ext. 144 to schedule an appointment.

II. Background:

The National Register (NR) and New Jersey State Register (SR) listed Fenwick Manor is an excellent, early 19th century example of the architectural transition between Federal and Greek Revival styles, whose striking western façade uniquely reflects a mixture of these features. In addition, the farmhouse was home to some of the seminal entrepreneurs and innovators of the New Jersey Pinelands, including horticultural pioneer Elizabeth C. White who was instrumental in developing the cultivation of the modern blueberry from local, wild species.

Increased rainfall, humidity, and extreme and unpredictable weather have had a significant, deleterious effect on Fenwick Manor. Over the past decade, there has been an accelerated and pronounced deterioration of Fenwick’s painted exterior and exposed wood features due to the cumulative effects of climatic conditions as well as prolonged State office closures due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

Photos depicting the current condition of the exterior of Fenwick Manor are attached to this RFP as Attachment 1.

Fenwick Manor is one of four buildings that constitute the offices of the New Jersey Pinelands Commission and is located at 15 Springfield Road, New Lisbon, New Jersey. The building is currently used as office space and will continue to be used as such during the entirety of the project.

III. Project Description and Scope of Services:

The goal of the Preservation Plan is to identify and prioritize recommendations for future restoration and or/stabilization projects associated with Fenwick Manor, particularly its exterior, and to provide a planning tool for the Commission’s upkeep and long-term preservation of this valuable resource.

Development of the Preservation Plan must be done in accordance with the standards of the New Jersey Historic Trust and NJ DEP Historic Preservation Office’s document “Historic Structure Reports & Preservation Plans: A Preparation Guide – Second Edition.

<https://www.nj.gov/dep/hpo/4sustain/preparehsr.pdf>

At a minimum, the Preservation Plan must contain the following:

1. Preface
 - a. Table of Contents
 - b. Executive Summary
 - c. Introduction
2. Developmental History
 - a. History of the Property
 - b. Archaeological Evaluation
 - c. Site & Landscape Evaluation

- d. Architectural Description
- e. Structural Evaluation
- 3. Treatment & Use
 - a. Treatment Philosophy
 - b. Use & Interpretation of the Resource
 - c. Code & Accessibility Review
 - d. Property Treatment Recommendations
 - e. Architectural Treatment Recommendations
 - f. Summary of Recommendations
 - g. Prioritization & Cost Estimate
- 4. Appendices
 - a. Maintenance Plan
 - b. Vulnerability & Hazard Assessment
 - c. Appendix Sections

In addition, although the potential for ground-disturbing activities associated with projects at Fenwick Manor is low, the Preservation Plan must also assess the need for any possible archaeological work at the site in the future. The Pinelands Commission staff archaeologist will work closely with the chosen consultant during the development of the Preservation Plan to ensure that areas of potential archaeological sensitivity at Fenwick Manor are assessed and that strategies are developed for appropriate mitigation.

The bid must include the following Tasks and Schedule:

- On-Site Kick Off Meeting with Chosen Consultant Team-First Week in October, 2022.
- Monthly Work Progress Reports- From the Last Week in October until Submittal of Finalized Preservation Plan.
- Submittal of Draft Preservation Plan for Review-Last Week in January, 2023.
- Submittal of Finalized Preservation Plan- Last Week in February, 2023
- Consultant Presentation to the Pinelands Commission at Public Meeting-March 2023.

Accelerated schedule for the preparation of the Preservation Plan document is in anticipation of the Commission's application for a New Jersey Historic Trust Capital Grant in April, 2023.

IV. Evaluation Factors for Award

- A. Evaluation of the Proposal - All proposals will be reviewed to determine responsiveness. Non-responsive proposals will be rejected without evaluation. Responsive proposals will be evaluated by an Evaluation Committee pursuant to the following two criteria, which are presented in descending order of importance with the weighting percentage noted. The Commission reserves the right to request clarifying information subsequent to submission of the proposal if necessary. Standards for each criterion are followed by specific instructions for proposal preparation. The requisite information shall be supplied in the Contractor' proposal together with supplemental information as may be requested. Interviews may be conducted, at the option of the Evaluation Committee, with any or all of the firms submitting a proposal. Although interviews may take place, all proposals should be complete and responsive on their face. A contract may be awarded without interviews or further discussion. The Pinelands Commission will select the individual/firm whose proposal is deemed most advantageous to the Commission, price and other factors considered. The following criteria will be used to evaluate the Proposals for the Historic Fenwick Manor Preservation Plan:

1. Consultant Team Credentials/Qualifications: (65%):

The proposals will be evaluated on the consultant team's experience completing Preservation Plans that conform to the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties, as well as the Historic Structure Reports and Preservation Plans: A Preparation Guide-Second Edition. The proposal must include resumes for the consultant team leader in addition to all key consultant team personnel who will engage in the work described in the Scope of Services, illustrating background and relevant experience with the preparation of Preservation Plans for historic buildings. In addition, proposals must provide a minimum of three (3) references from clients for which the firm has provided historic preservation services of similar size and scope within the last five (5) years. Proposals must include the overall amount of time anticipated for completion of the project, and the amount of time that each member of the consultant team will be spending on the project as well as their hourly rates.

2. Cost (35%):

The proposals will be evaluated on the Contractor's total lump sum (fixed price) cost to complete the services delineated in the Scope of Work. The Contractor must provide a total lump sum (fixed price) cost for the entire project. The proposal should identify the factor used to determine the cost, including, but not limited to the amount allocated to staffing, drafting of the Plan, etc.

B. BAFO - After its receipt and initial evaluation of proposals, the Pinelands Commission reserves the right to negotiate with any number of bidders it chooses in its discretion.

C. Conflict of Interest Avoidance – This project requires an objective and unbiased approach. To prevent an appearance of subjectivity, any person, corporation, company, consortium, firm or entity and any associate, partner, agent or affiliate thereof that is currently, or has been during the past five (5) years has submitted a development application to the Pinelands Commission or has been employed or retained by a developer or applicant pursuing or contemplating development activities, as that term is defined at N.J.A.C. 7:50-2.11, to be located within the Pinelands Area may be prohibited from working on this contract if a conflict of interest is determined by the Pinelands Commission to exist. The existence of a client or employment relationship does not in and of itself automatically disqualify a Contractor's proposal. The Commission reserves the right to award the contract to a Contractor who previously submitted an application to the Pinelands Commission or did work for a developer, applicant, municipality or county in the Pinelands Area if it determines that no current conflict of interest exists. Additionally, and to further prevent an appearance of impropriety or subjectivity, any person, corporation, company consortium, firm or entity and any associate, partner, agent, or affiliate thereof awarded the contract resulting from this solicitation will be precluded during the contract period from engaging in work for any entity that is applying for a development application from the Pinelands Commission.

The Committee shall not be required to contact all bidders to negotiate and/or to submit a BAFO.

In response to the Pinelands Commission's request to negotiate, bidders must continue to satisfy all mandatory RFP requirements but may improve upon their original proposal in any revised proposal. However, any revised proposal that does not continue to satisfy all mandatory requirements will be rejected as non-responsive and the original proposal will be used for any further evaluation purposes in accordance with the following procedure.

In response to the Pinelands Commission's request for a BAFO, bidders may submit a revised proposal that is equal to or lower in price than their original submission, but must continue to satisfy all mandatory requirements. Any revised proposal that is higher in price than the original will be rejected as non-responsive and the original bid proposal will be used for any further evaluation purposes.

After receipt of the results of the negotiation and/or the BAFO(s), the Evaluation Committee will complete its evaluation and will prepare an Award Recommendation to the Executive Director.

The Evaluation Committee's Award Recommendation will include the responsive bidder(s) whose bid proposal, conforming to this RFP, is most advantageous to the Pinelands Commission, price and other factors considered.

All contacts, records of initial evaluations, any correspondence with bidders related to any request for negotiation or BAFO, any revised bid proposals, the Evaluation Committee Report and the Award Recommendation, will remain confidential until a Notice of Intent to Award is issued.

If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and

You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 24% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

What is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account (other than an account maintained by a foreign financial institution (FFI)), list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9. If you are providing Form W-9 to an FFI to document a joint account, each holder of the account that is a U.S. person must provide a Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note: ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or “doing business as” (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C corporation, or S corporation. Enter the entity’s name as shown on the entity’s tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a “disregarded entity.” See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner’s name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner’s name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity’s name on line 2, “Business name/disregarded entity name.” If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box on line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box on line 3.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

Note: You may wish to consult with the financial institution requesting this form to determine whether the FATCA code and/or exempt payee code should be completed.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, write NEW at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/Businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or SS-4 mailed to you within 10 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983.

You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983.

You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a systemic problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or report them at www.ftc.gov/complaint. You can contact the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338). If you have been the victim of identity theft, see www.IdentityTheft.gov and Pub. 5027.

Visit www.irs.gov/IdentityTheft to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

For Completing the “Two-Year Vendor Certification and Disclosure of Political Contributions” Chapter 51 Form

Background Information

On September 22, 2004, then-Governor James E. McGreevey issued E.O. 134, the purpose of which was to insulate the negotiation and award of State contracts from political contributions that posed a risk of improper influence, purchase of access or the appearance thereof. To this end, E.O. 134 prohibited State departments, agencies and authorities from entering into contracts exceeding $17,500 with individuals or entities that made certain political contributions. E.O. 134 was superseded by Public Law 2005, c. 51, signed into law on March 22, 2005 (“Chapter 51”).

On September 24, 2008, Governor Jon S. Corzine issued E.O. 117 which is designed to enhance New Jersey’s efforts to protect the integrity of procurement decisions and increase the public’s confidence in government. The Executive Order builds upon the provisions of Chapter 51.

Two-Year Certification Process

Upon approval by the State Chapter 51 Review Unit, the Certification and Disclosure of Political Contributions form is valid for a two (2) year period. Thus, if a vendor receives approval on January 1, 2014, the certification expiration date would be December 31, 2015. Any change in the vendor’s ownership status and/or political contributions during the two-year period will require the submission of new Chapter 51/Executive Order 117 forms to the State Review Unit. Please note that it is the vendor’s responsibility to file new forms with the State should these changes occur.

State Agency Instructions: Prior to the awarding of a contract, the State Agency should first use NJSTART (<https://www.njstart.gov/bsol>) to check the status of a vendor’s Chapter 51 certification before contacting the Review Unit’s mailbox at CD134@treas.nj.gov. If the State Agency does not find any Chapter 51 Certification information in NJSTART and/or the vendor is not registered in NJSTART, then the State Agency should send an e-mail to CD134@treas.nj.gov to verify the certification status of the vendor. If the response is that the vendor is NOT within an approved two-year period, then forms must be obtained from the vendor and forwarded for review. If the response is that the vendor is within an approved two-year period, then the response so stating should be placed with the bid/contract documentation for the subject project.
