Attention: Reporters and Editors

What: The New Jersey Pinelands Commission will host a free education program that features live animals. Erin Kiefer, a naturalist with Woodford Cedar Run Wildlife Refuge of Medford, NJ, will deliver a presentation about Raptors & Reptiles. This free presentation will feature live birds of prey, a snake, and a turtle. Participants will have the opportunity to observe each species' unique characteristics and learn about their habitats and special adaptations for survival. The program is geared towards kids but will surely make for an enjoyable hands-on experience for all ages.

When: Thursday, July 19th, 2012, at 2 p.m.

Where: The Richard J. Sullivan Center for Environmental Policy and Education on 15 Springfield Road in Pemberton Township, NJ.

Anyone interested in attending the presentation can pre-register by calling (609) 894-7300 or sending a message to info@njpines.state.nj.us.
