

By David Mosca | The Jersey Journal

PVSC announces winners of 2024 art competition

Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission's 2024 Art Competition winners: 1st place, Anahi Guzhnay, a junior at Union City High School; 2nd place winner, June Paget, a junior at McNair Academic High School in Jersey City; 3rd place winner, Angelina Dela Rosa, a junior at Elmwood Park High School. Courtesy of PVSC

The winners of the 2024 Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission Art Competition were announced by Executive Director Gregory Tramontozzi at an award ceremony held at the agency's Administration Building in Newark.

PVSC held the competition to celebrate the artistic talent and vision of high school juniors and seniors within the agency's 48-municipality treatment district. PVSC received submissions from a significant number of the 88 district schools that were eligible to participate. Prizes were awarded to the three winning artists.

The 1st place winner was Anahi Guzhnay, a junior at Union City High School. The 2nd place winner was June Paget, a junior at McNair Academic High School in Jersey City. The 3rd place winner was Angelina Dela Rosa, a junior at Elmwood Park High School.