Content Note

This series consists of original letters from various individuals, dating from the colonial period to the present century. The majority of the items were formerly catalogued as part of the Bureau of Archives and History Manuscript Collection. Many were probably donations to that agency or its predecessor, the Public Record Office, from private individuals. The collection is arranged chronologically. NOTE: The places referred to in the entries below are in New Jersey unless otherwise indicated. Oversized items (stored in Box 2) are noted as such in the Contents list below.
