

Governor's Hispanic Fellows Program
June 6, 2022 – July 29, 2022

2022 Student Application

The Governor's Hispanic Fellows Program is an 8 weeks summer program geared toward leadership and professional development, which has offered quality internship experiences to Hispanic college students since 1988. Our students work in a government, corporate or non-profit setting and participate in leadership training seminars conducted by a team comprised of the Center's staff, government officials, business professionals and current and or former elected officials who are each expert in their respective fields. In addition, you will gain the knowledge and understanding of government and corporate culture, networking and public policy engagement.

Governor's Hispanic Fellows Program

June 6, 2022 – July 29, 2022

2022 Student Application

I have read all of the information pertaining to the intern/fellowship program and, if accepted by the New Jersey Center for Hispanic Policy, Research and Development, I agree to honor my commitment and meet the following criteria:

The 2022 Governor's Hispanic Fellows Program will begin on June 6, 2022 and end on July 29, 2022.

- Throughout the eight weeks, interns will report to their job placement site Mondays, Tuesdays, and Fridays.
- If invited, an interview will be scheduled with the Center for Hispanic Policy, Research and Development. You will be notified of the outcome of the selection process and may be required to undergo a background check.
- Interns are required to attend all leadership development sessions of the Fellows Program. Attendance is mandatory.
- Students must work no more than 21 hours weekly at their intern placement site and attend weekly training sessions that are 14 hours in duration each. Vacation time is not allowed during the eight weeks.
- Students seeking credit for their internship must abide by their College/University's work hours requirement (please make sure you inform the Center).
- All interns selected must complete all institute assignments and projects, which include completion of Professional Team presentation.

The information given above is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I am aware that any misrepresentation will result in the disqualification of my application. I also agree that if selected, the CHPRD and the NJ Department of State can use my statements and likeness in its promotional literature.
