

GREETINGS FROM NEW JERSEY: Popular Culture & The Garden State

2018 NJ History Forum
Friday, November 2, 2018
Monmouth University

NEW JERSEY
Historical COMMISSION

Featuring

- A keynote talk by Bob Santelli, author & founding director of the Grammy Museum, with special moderator, Dr. Louis Masur, Distinguished Professor of American Studies and History, Rutgers University – New Brunswick
- A conversation about history of the American Revolution in popular culture with Dr. Erica Armstrong Dunbar, Charles and Mary Beard Professor of History, Rutgers University, actor Ian Kahn (George Washington, Turn), and Sandy Mackenzie Lloyd, Historian, Historic Philadelphia, Inc.
- Exciting presentations on the history of NJ music, foodways, television, design, and more

NEW JERSEY
NJSA
STATE ARCHIVES

NEW JERSEY
STATE MUSEUM
Inspiration. On display.

Registration Now Open!

History.NJ.gov
DiscoverNJHistory.org

MONMOUTH
UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY & ANTHROPOLOGY