

Vivian Scott Chew

Founder- TimeZone International
Partner- Chew Entertainment

Vivian Scott Chew, is undeniably a pioneering risk taker in every sense of the word. As Founder and Principal of TimeZone International, she stands as an innovative figure in the global music and entertainment industry.

One of Chew's foundational steps was at ASCAP (American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers), where she was the first African-American female membership representative. She then founded the "ASCAP Rhythm and Soul Awards," which became an instant success and has grown to become an ASCAP staple event celebrating its 33rd year.

Vivian stepped into the world of entrepreneurship by establishing; TimeZone International-the first U.S. based African-American owned company that provides recording artists with international marketing and promotion services in expanded regions. The roster of artists includes Jill Scott, Lil Wayne, JoJo, Toni Braxton, Iyanla Vanzant, Jay-Z, Kem, Brian McKnight, Ledisi, Common, India.Arie, BeBe Winans. Corporate clients include McDonalds, Red Bull, Sony Music and Universal Music Group to name a few.

Alongside her husband, Music Director and Producer, Ray Chew, Vivian co-owns Chew Entertainment, a premiere event production firm. Together, they have a great reverence for live music, working with clients such as The National Urban League, New Jersey Performing Arts Center, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, The American Heart Association, Jackie Robinson Foundation and Carnegie Hall where she and Ray are proud to have produced three installments of their star-studded concert, a "Night of Inspiration", with the next premiering December 12, 2020.

Vivian is the newest member of the New Jersey State Council on the Arts and is the President of The Power2Inspire Foundation which was created with Ray to identify and nurture new and developing musicians, singers, songwriters, producers and aspiring music business executives in pursuit of their careers.
