Route 4 eastbound left lane closures required tonight for concrete removal in Englewood, Bergen County Route 4 eastbound right lane closures required Sunday for utility work

(Trenton) – New Jersey Department of Transportation (NJDOT) officials today announced that two left lanes on Route 4 eastbound will be closed tonight for concrete removal as part of the Jones Road over Route 4 bridge replacement project in Englewood, Bergen County.

In addition, Route 4 eastbound will have right lane closures on Sunday for utility work. This is the second of three weekends that require lane closures for utility work. NJDOT will provide notice prior to any future closures.

Friday, December 16

Beginning at 11 p.m. tonight, December 16, until 5 a.m. tomorrow, Saturday, December 17, the left and center lanes on Route 4 eastbound will be closed underneath the Jones Road Bridge over Route 4 for concrete removal. At least one lane of traffic will be maintained overnight. Motorists are advised to slow down, use caution, and expect delays or plan an alternate route.

Sunday, December 18

Beginning at 7 a.m. Sunday, December 18, until 6 p.m., the right and center lanes on Route 4 eastbound will be closed between Myrtle Avenue/Kenwood Street and the Jones Road Bridge over Route 4 for utility work. At least one lane of traffic will be maintained on Route 4 during construction. Motorists are advised to slow down, use caution, and expect delays or plan an alternate route.

The $20.7 million federally-funded project will replace the Jones Road Bridge over Route 4 in Englewood Bergen County. The new bridge will be approximately three feet higher to improve under-clearance issues on Route 4. Work is expected to be complete in the summer of 2025.

The precise timing of the work is subject to change due to weather or other factors. Motorists are encouraged to check NJDOT's traffic information website www.511nj.org for real-time travel information and for NJDOT news follow us on Twitter @NewJerseyDOT and on the NJDOT Facebook page.
