JOB DESCRIPTION

The New Jersey Department of Treasury's Pension Fraud and Abuse Unit is seeking an Investigator Trainee. Under close supervision of an Investigator 3, Supervisor of Investigations, or the Director of the Pension Fraud and Abuse Unit, as a trainee and productive worker within the Pension Fraud and Abuse Unit, receives on-the-job training in the performance of office and/or field duties to investigate.

Duties may include but are not limited to:

- As a member of the Pension Fraud and Abuse Unit the Investigator Trainee will, under the close supervision of an Investigator 3, Supervisor of Investigations, or Director of the Pension Fraud and Abuse Unit, receive on-the-job training in the field or from the central office related to determining benefit eligibility and detection of fraud with State statutes and regulatory requirements.
- Learn to investigate cases involving alleged fraud, negligence, misrepresentation, misconduct, or abuse by pension members seeking disability retirement benefits or those previously awarded disability retirement; or,
- Learn to conduct investigations targeting professional service providers who are improperly enrolled in the Public Employees Retirement System (PERS) in violation of N.J. P.L. 2007, Chapter 92.
- Learn to review and evaluate internal and external referrals alleging fraud or abuse within the State-administered pension and health benefits systems.
- Learn to review and analyze information contained in records and documents.
- Learn to prepare clear, technically sound, accurate, and informative reports of investigational activities containing facts, findings, conclusions, and recommendations.
- Learn to visit employer locations to review documents, interview personnel and obtain employee records.
- Learn to query internal and external databases and social media platforms for data, documents, and information relative to investigations.
- May act as a witness for the State and provides testimony before the Pension Boards of Trustees, Office of Administrative Law and the Court of Appeals.

The standard workweek is Monday through Friday. This position may be eligible to participate in the Department's telework program, which allows eligible employees to work remotely for up to two (2) days per week, as approved by management. The position offers a comprehensive benefits package including medical, prescription drug, and dental coverage, benefit leave, paid holidays, Pension, supplemental pension plan options, and tax saving programs.
