JOB DESCRIPTION

The New Jersey Department of Treasury, Division of Pensions & Benefits is seeking an Assistant Director of Health Benefits Policy & Planning. Under the direction of the Deputy Director, is responsible for the oversight of all Division operations within the Health Benefits Policy & Planning Bureau.

Directly supervises the Managers of the Health Benefits Policy & Planning Bureau. Provides direction, oversight and resources necessary to enable the bureau to efficiently and effectively meet its mission. Directs the bureau in forming policy and legislation proposals, collecting data, conducting research, analyzing trends, identifying alternatives and developing recommendations for the Bureaus' policy. Assists the Director, Executive Deputy Director and Deputy Director in the administration of public employee health benefits programs in particular in policy formulation and planning and analysis. Responsible for managing the follow-up to information requests and overseeing the development and delivery of presentation content provided to the State Health Benefits Commission (SHBC) and School Employees Health Benefits Commission (SEHBC), as well as the Plan Design Committees (PDCs), during their respective meetings. Leads the development of subject matter expertise on plan design, rate renewal, and health policy and monitors emerging national and state best practices, analyzing proposed legislation, and prepares analyses and communications to support the SHBP and SEHBP.

Provides expert support and clear, evidence-based, transparent reporting. Represents the Director, Executive Deputy Director and Deputy Director in the SHBC, SEHBC, PDCs and other forums with leadership, employers, the legislature and interested third parties in health benefit administration. Develops and defines plan design recommendations for the SHBP and SEHBP. Acts as management advisor for Health Benefit RFP evaluation committees and supports, with subject matter expertise, the Division's procurement process. Manages vendor contracts and authorizes the payment of vendor fees. Assists the Deputy Director in working with the Treasurer's and Governor's offices on benefit reform and cost containment strategies, studies proposals for the health benefit programs in collaboration with the health benefits finance and operations teams, actuaries, and consultants, ensuring the proposals reflect utilization, trends, plan dynamics and best practices for the efficient, effective and high quality delivery of health benefits to NJ public employees. Assists the Deputy Director in the administration of public employee health benefit programs to ensure effectiveness and increased productivity. Performs other related duties as required.

The standard workweek is Monday through Friday. This position may be eligible to participate in the Department's telework program, which allows eligible employees to work remotely for up to two (2) days per week, as approved by management. The position offers a comprehensive benefits package including medical, prescription drug, and dental coverage, benefit leave, paid holidays, Pension, supplemental pension plan options, and tax saving programs.
