JOB DESCRIPTION

The New Jersey Department of the Treasury, Division of Purchase and Property is seeking an Administrative Analyst 3, Information Systems. Under general supervision, the incumbent performs a broad range of data analysis and programming functions to support operational and management reporting. Duties include extracting, validating, and analyzing data from Oracle and SQL databases; developing and maintaining dashboards, statistical reports, and performance metrics using tools such as Power BI; and managing both recurring and ad-hoc reporting needs. The role involves conducting data quality checks, performing trend analysis, and producing analytical outputs that support program monitoring and decision-making.

The incumbent serves as the Division's primary technical representative and liaison with the Division of Revenue and Enterprise Services (DORES) on issues requiring technical escalation. This position supports major technology initiatives, including system modernization efforts, workflow automation platforms, and projects such as ServiceNow-CSM and SimpliGov. Additional responsibilities include assisting with special projects, troubleshooting operational issues, and providing coverage during staff absences.

Candidates must have experience with database queries, data validation, report development, and analytical methods. Familiarity with programming languages such as .NET, Java, or similar technologies is required, along with proficiency in SQL, Oracle environments, and data visualization tools. Strong analytical skills, attention to detail, and effective communication abilities are essential.

The standard workweek is Monday through Friday. This position may be eligible to participate in the Department's telework program, which allows eligible employees to work remotely for up to two (2) days per week, as approved by management. The position offers a comprehensive benefits package including medical, prescription drug, and dental coverage, benefit leave, paid holidays, Pension, supplemental pension plan options, and tax saving programs. For more information regarding the New Jersey State Health Benefits Program (SHBP) and Public Employees' Retirement System of New Jersey (PERS) plan offerings, eligibility requirements, and enrollment, please visit the New Jersey Division of Pensions and Benefits website at <https://www.nj.gov/treasury/pensions/>.
