

Schedule B - continued

The Gross Income Tax Act does not distinguish between active and passive losses, nor does it authorize carryback or carryforward of such losses. You may deduct Federal passive losses in full in the year incurred against any gain within the same category of income, but only in the year that it occurred.

Line 2 - Capital Gains Distributions

Enter on Line 2 the total amount of all capital gains distributions from your Form 1099-DIV(s) or similar statement(s). Line 4 - Net Gains

Enter on Line 4 the total of the amounts listed on Line 1, Column f and Lines 2 and 3, netting gains with losses. Enter this amount on Line 18, Form NJ-1040. If the netted amount is a loss, enter zero here and make no entry on Line 18, Form NJ-1040.

Schedule C - Net Gain or Income from Rents, Royalties, Patents and Copyrights

Use Schedule C to report net gain or income less net losses from rents, royalties, patents and copyrights. The Gross Income Tax Act does not distinguish between active and passive losses, nor does it authorize carryback or carryforward of such losses. Thus, you may deduct Federal passive losses in full in the year incurred against any gain within the same category of income.

If the spaces provided are not sufficient, enclose a statement with the return listing any additional property and income along with Schedule C.

Line 1 - List Property and Income

Homestead Property Tax Rebate Application

Qualifications

To be eligible for a New Jersey Homestead Property Tax Rebate:

- ◆ You must have been domiciled and maintained a principal residence as a homeowner or tenant in New Jersey during 1997; and
- ◆ Your gross income for the entire year must have been $100,000 or less (see Note on page 39); and
- ◆ Your principal residence, whether owned or rented, must be subject to local property taxes, and property taxes must have been paid on that residence either as actual property taxes or through rent; and
- ◆ Your rented dwelling must have its own separate kitchen and bath facilities; and
- ◆ If you are filing Form NJ-1040, you must file the Homestead Property Tax Rebate Application (Form HR-1040) and the NJ-1040 by April 15, 1998, or if you are filing the NJ-1040 under an extension, by the extended due date. If you are filing only Form

HR-1040, see "Rebate Only Filers" below.

TAX TIP Rebate Only Filers. A resident who is not required to file a New Jersey income tax return (because of income below the minimum filing threshold) and meets the qualifications for a Homestead Property Tax Rebate may file only the HR-1040 to claim a rebate. It is not necessary to file the NJ-1040 along with the homestead rebate application. These residents have until January 15, 1999 to file Form HR-1040.

Part-year Residents. A part-year resident who meets the qualifications is eligible for a Homestead Property Tax Rebate. Part-year residents must enter their full year income from all sources on Line 8 of the HR-1040.

Principal Residence. A principal residence means a homestead, either owned or rented, actually and continually occupied as your permanent residence. No rebate will be granted for a vacation home, a "second home," or property which the owner rents to someone else.

Homeowners

Under the Homestead Property Tax Rebate Act of 1990, you may claim a rebate for the home in New Jersey that you owned and lived in as your principal residence provided it was subject to local property taxes. Both single family homes and certain multi-family homes qualify.

Multi-Unit Properties. As a homeowner, you may claim a rebate on your property only if it contains four units or less. Of these four units, only one may be used for commercial purposes.

Condominiums and Co-ops. A condominium unit or a unit in a cooperative housing complex or mutual housing corporation is considered a single family dwelling for purposes of the rebate.

Continuing Care Communities. As a resident in a continuing care retirement community, you may qualify for a rebate as a homeowner if the continuing care contract for your unit separately states your share of the property taxes.

Disabled Veterans. Totally and permanently disabled veterans who have a 100% exemption from local property tax are not eligible for a homestead rebate. If any portion of the dwelling is rented to a tenant and property tax is paid by the disabled veteran owner on the rented portion, any tenant may be eligible for a homestead rebate, but the property owner is not eligible.

Life Tenancy. You are also a homeowner if you have life tenancy rights or hold a lease for 99 years or more.

Tenants

Under the Homestead Property Tax Rebate Act, you may claim a rebate if you rented a home or an apartment in a dwelling subject to local property taxes which contained its own separate kitchen and bathroom. You do not qualify for a rebate if you reside in a unit which only has access to a kitchen or bathroom.

Mobile Homes. If you own a mobile home which is located in a mobile home park, you qualify for a rebate as a tenant. For more information on mobile homes, contact the New Jersey Tax Hotline.

Identification Section

Name and Address

TAX TIP  Rebate Filers Only. If you are filing only the homestead rebate application, place the peel-off label from the front of this booklet in the name and address section at the top of the application. Correct the label where errors occur. If you have no label, print or type your name (last name first), complete address and zip code in the spaces provided. If your address has changed, complete the address portion of the identification

Tax-exempt, Subsidized and Campus Housing

One of the qualifications for the New Jersey Homestead Property Tax Rebate is that property taxes be paid on the applicant's principal residence, either directly or through rent. Thus, tenants living in dwellings which are not subject to local property tax are not eligible for the rebate. This includes tenants living in tax-exempt housing or other dwellings owned by State, County, Municipal or Federal government; students living in on-campus apartments at State colleges and universities; and tenants living in dwellings owned by religious, charitable or other nonprofit organizations (including on-campus apartments at private nonprofit colleges and universities), if the property is exempt from local property taxes.

Do not complete the Homestead Property Tax Rebate Application (Form HR-1040) if the dwelling you rent is not subject to local property tax; you do not qualify for a rebate. If you are not sure whether the dwelling you rent is subject to local property tax, contact your municipal tax assessor for information. The Division of Taxation audits returns to insure that only qualified applicants receive rebates.

This information need not be submitted each year providing there is no change in your condition. STATE OF NEW JERSEY
DIVISION OF TAXATION
PO BOX 197
TRENTON NJ 08646-0197

NOTE: The Division of Taxation will calculate the amount of your rebate based on the information you provide. Rebate amounts and qualifications for eligibility are subject to change due to budgetary restrictions. For more information on how the rebate is calculated, request Tax Topic Bulletin HR-2, Homestead Property Tax Rebate Guidelines.
