1999 Reimbursement Recipients

If you applied for and received a 1999 Property Tax Reimbursement, you should have received a personalized application preprinted with information you provided. If you qualify for a 2000 Property Tax Reimbursement, be sure to use the personalized application. If you applied for and received a 1999 Property Tax Reimbursement and you have not received your personalized application, please call 1-800-882-6597 and one will be mailed to you.

Introduction

The Property Tax Reimbursement Program is designed to reimburse senior citizens and disabled persons for property tax increases. For applicants who met the eligibility requirements as of December 31, 1999, the amount of the 2000 reimbursement will be the difference between the amount of property taxes that were due and paid by the applicant in 1999 and the amount of property taxes that were due and paid in 2000, provided, of course, that the amount paid in 2000 was greater than the amount paid in 1999. For mobile home owners, property tax means 18% of the annual site fee paid to the owner of a mobile home park.

Homeowners and mobile home owners who are receiving homestead rebates and/or property tax credits or deductions are also entitled to the Property Tax Reimbursement if they meet the eligibility requirements.

Reminder

You must file a separate Homestead Rebate Application (Form HR-1040) to receive a homestead rebate.

Qualifications

To qualify for the 2000 reimbursement, an applicant must meet all of the following requirements:

- You must have been age 65 or older or receiving Federal Social Security disability benefits as of December 31, 1999 (You do NOT qualify if you are receiving Social Security disability benefits on behalf of someone else); and
- You must have owned and lived in your home (or have leased a site in a mobile home park on which you have placed a manufactured or mobile home that you own) since before January 1, 1997; and
- You must have lived in New Jersey continuously since before January 1, 1990 as either a homeowner or a renter; and
- Your total annual income must be less than:
 - For 1999: $18,151 if you are single, or $22,256 (combined income) if married, and
 - For 2000: $18,587 if you are single, or $22,791 (combined income) if married; and
- For both 1999 and 2000 you must have paid the full amount of the property taxes due on your home.

NOTE: You may not claim a reimbursement for a vacation home, a "second home," or property which you rent to someone else.

Income Standards

With very few exceptions, ALL INCOME that you received during the year, including income which you are not required to report on your New Jersey income tax return (Form NJ-1040), must be taken into account to determine eligibility for the Property Tax Reimbursement. Income limits for eligibility will increase annually by the amount of the maximum Social Security benefit cost of living increase for that year for single and married persons, respectively.

Examples of possible sources of income (gross amounts unless otherwise noted) are as follows:

- Social Security Benefits (including Medicare Part B premiums)
- Total Pension Income (including annuity and IRA distributions)
- Salaries and Wages, Bonuses, Commissions and Fees
- Unemployment Benefits
- Interest (taxable and exempt)
- Dividends
- Net Capital Gains
- Net Rental Income
- Net Business Income
- Support Payments
- Inheritances
- Royalties
- Disability Benefits
- Fair Market Value of Prizes and Awards
- Net Gambling and Lottery Winnings (including New Jersey)
- All other Income

Sources of income which should NOT be taken into account to determine eligibility:

- Reparation or restitution payments to victims of National Socialist (Nazi) persecution; returns of property (tangible or intangible) seized, lost or misappropriated as a result of Nazi actions or policies and any cash values in replacement of such property; payments of insurance policies purchased by victims of Nazi persecution; and any accumulated or accrued interest on such
- Benefit amounts received under the New Jersey State Lifeline Credit Program/ Tenants Lifeline Assistance Program
- Benefits received as New Jersey State Homestead Rebates
- Benefits received as NJ SAVER Rebates
- Capital gains on the sale of a principal residence after May 6, 1997 of up to $250,000 if single, and up to $500,000 if married. Capital gains in excess of the allowable exclusion must be included in income. (Capital gains and the exclusion of all or part of the gain on the sale of a principal residence are computed in the same manner for both Federal and State income tax purposes.)
- Stipends from the Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA) and Foster Grandparents programs
- Proceeds received from a spouse's life insurance policy
- Agent Orange Payments
- Reparation payments to Japanese Americans by the Federal Government pursuant to sections 105 and 106 of the Civil Liberties Act of 1988, P.L. 100-383 (50 U.S.C. App. 1989b-4 and 1989b-5)

Filing Requirements

Due Date March 15, 2001

Eligible applicants must file the 2000 Property Tax Reimbursement Application (Form PTR-1) on or before March 15, 2001. Applications postmarked on or before the due date are considered to be filed on time. Applications postmarked after the due date are considered to be filed late.

Proof of Payment

Applicants are required to submit proof of the amount of property taxes that were due and paid with their applications. The Division will accept copies of the following:

HOMEOWNERS

1. Property tax bills for both 1999 and 2000, along with
2. Proof of the amount of property taxes you paid which may be either:
 - a. Copies of cancelled checks or receipts for both 1999 and 2000 showing the amount of property taxes paid; or
 - b. A copy of Form 1098 which you received from your mortgage company showing the amount of property taxes which were paid out of your escrow account.

We realize that you may not be able to locate your 1999 and 2000 property tax bills or proof of the amount of taxes you paid. For your convenience, we have included a form in this booklet (Form PTR-1A) which you may submit as proof of the amount of property taxes due and paid. This form must be completed and certified by your local tax collector as to the amount of property taxes due and paid for both 1999 and 2000.

Multiple owners (if home is owned by more than one person). If title to the property is held by the eligible applicant with others as tenants in common or joint tenants (except in the case of a husband and wife who are filing the claim jointly), the applicant is only entitled to the proportionate share of the reimbursement which reflects his or her percentage of ownership.

MOBILE HOME OWNERS

1. A copy of the contract(s) or agreement(s) for both 1999 and 2000 from the mobile home park showing the amount of your site fees, along with
2. Proof of the amount of site fees you paid which may be either:
 - a. Copies of cancelled checks or receipts for both 1999 and 2000 showing the amount of site fees paid; or
 - b. A signed statement from the mobile home park management showing the amount of site fees paid.

In place of 1 and 2 above, mobile home owners may provide a completed Form PTR-1B (on the reverse of the homeowners' form, PTR-1A). This form must be completed and certified by the owner or manager of the mobile home park.

Reimbursement Checks

For those applicants who qualify, reimbursement checks for the difference between the 1999 and 2000 property taxes (or 18% of the annual site fees) will be sent on or before July 15, 2001.

Privacy Act Notification

The Federal Privacy Act of 1974 requires an agency requesting information from individuals to inform them why the request is being made and how the information is being used.

Your social security number is used primarily to account for and give credit for tax payments. The Division of Taxation also uses social security numbers in the administration and enforcement of all tax laws for which it is responsible. In addition, the Division of Taxation is required by law to forward an annual list to the Administrative Office of the Courts containing the names, addresses and social security numbers of individuals who file a New Jersey tax return or homestead rebate application. This list will be used to avoid duplication of names on jury lists.

Completing the Application

Name and Address

Place the peel-off label in the name and address section at the top of the application. You will find your preprinted name and address label inside the insert at the front of this booklet. Correct the label where errors occur. If you have no label, print or type your name (last name first), complete address and zip code in the spaces provided. Be sure to include your spouse's name if your marital status as of December 31, 2000 was married. Your reimbursement and next year's application will be sent to the address you provide.

If your mailing address is different from the address of the property for which the reimbursement is being claimed, print or type the property address in the space provided on Line 8 of this application.

Social Security Number

Be sure to check the accuracy of the social security number(s) printed on the label. To correct an error, draw a line through the incorrect number and write the correct number above it.

If you do not have a label, enter your social security number(s) in the space provided on the application, one digit in each box (□). If your marital status as of December 31, 2000 was married, you must report both spouses' numbers in the order in which the names are listed on the application.

County/Municipality Code

Enter your four-digit county/municipality code, one digit in each box (□), from the table on page 9. This code identifies the county and municipality of your current residence. The county and municipality codes are for Division of Taxation purposes only.

Line 1 - Residency Status

Fill in the oval (●) to indicate whether you are claiming the reimbursement as a "Homeowner" or "Mobile Home Owner." Fill in only one oval.

Carefully read the requirements for eligibility listed on the application. If you satisfied requirements A through D for both 1999 AND 2000, turn the application over and complete the worksheets on the back to determine whether you also satisfy the income requirements in E and F. (Refer to page 3 for information on sources of income.)

Important

If you did not satisfy requirements A through D for BOTH 1999 AND 2000, you are not eligible for the reimbursement. Do not file the application.

Determining Income Eligibility

Table 1 – 1999 Total Income

If your marital status on December 31, 1999 was...	And Your Total 1999 Income Was...	Then...
Single	Less than $18,151	You meet the income eligibility requirement for 1999. Continue completing the application.
	$18,151 or more	You are not eligible for the reimbursement and should not file this application.
Married	Less than $22,256	You meet the income eligibility requirement for 1999. Continue completing the application.
	$22,256 or more	You are not eligible for the reimbursement and should not file this application.

Table 2 – 2000 Total Income

If your marital status on December 31, 2000 was...	And Your Total 2000 Income Was...	Then...
Single	Less than $18,587	You meet the income eligibility requirement for 2000. Continue completing the application.
	$18,587 or more	You are not eligible for the reimbursement and should not file this application.
Married	Less than $22,791	You meet the income eligibility requirement for 2000. Continue completing the application.
	$22,791 or more	You are not eligible for the reimbursement and should not file this application.

Worksheet A - 1999 Total Income

List all the income you received in 1999. Add the amounts on lines a through o. Then check Table 1 above to see if you meet the income eligibility requirement for 1999. If you were married as of December 31, 1999, you must combine your income with your spouse's income when completing the worksheet. If your spouse died during 1999 and your marital status on December 31, 1999 was "Single," only your income should be included. Joint income must be apportioned to reflect the amount you received.

Line 2 - 1999 Total Income

If you meet the income eligibility requirement, enter the amount of your 1999 Total Income from Worksheet A, Line p.

Line 3 - 1999 Marital Status

Indicate your marital status on December 31, 1999. Fill in only one oval (●). An applicant who is married but living apart from their spouse, and who does not have access to or receive support from the spouse's income, is considered to be "Single" for purposes of the Property Tax Reimbursement.

Line 4 - 1999 Eligibility Statement

If you met all the eligibility requirements as of December 31, 1999, check the box () and proceed to Worksheet B. If "No," you are not eligible for the reimbursement and you should not file this application.

Worksheet B - 2000 Total Income

List all the income you received in 2000. Add the amounts on lines a through o. Then check Table 2 on page 6 to see if you meet the income eligibility requirement for 2000. If you were married as of December 31, 2000, you must combine your income with your spouse's income when completing the worksheet. If your spouse died during 2000 and your marital status on December 31, 2000 was "Single," only your income should be included. Joint income must be apportioned to reflect the amount you received.

Line 5 - 2000 Total Income

If you meet the income eligibility requirement, enter the amount of your 2000 Total Income from Worksheet B, Line p.

Line 6 - 2000 Marital Status

Indicate your marital status on December 31, 2000. Fill in only one oval (●). An applicant who is married but living apart from their spouse, and who does not have access to or receive support from the spouse's income, is considered to be "Single" for purposes of the Property Tax Reimbursement.

Line 7 - 2000 Eligibility Statement

If you met all the eligibility requirements as of December 31, 2000, check the box (). If "No," you are not eligible for the reimbursement and you should not file this application.

Line 8 - Address

Enter the street address and municipality of the New Jersey residence for which you are claiming the reimbursement if it is different from the address you listed above.

Line 9 - Block and Lot Number

Homeowners enter the Block and Lot Number of the residence for which the reimbursement is being claimed. (If a condominium, also include qualifier.) You may obtain this information from your current property tax bill or from your local tax assessor. (Mobile Home Owners will not have a block and lot number.)

Line 10 - 2000 Property Tax

Homeowners enter your total 2000 property taxes due and paid on your principal residence in New Jersey. (If you received a senior citizen's and/or veteran's deduction, enter the amount of property taxes actually due and paid before the deduction(s) were subtracted.) Enter dollars and cents, one digit in each box (). Do not use dollar signs or dashes. If you did not pay the full amount of property taxes due by December 31, 2000, you are not eligible for the reimbursement.

Residents of cooperative dwelling units and continuing care retirement facilities must obtain a statement from their management indicating their share of property taxes paid for the residential unit they occupy.

Mobile Home Owners enter 18% of your 2000 site fees due and paid on your principal residence in New Jersey. Enter dollars and cents, one digit in each box (). Do not use dollar signs or dashes. If you did not pay the full amount due by December 31, 2000, you are not eligible for the reimbursement.

Line 11 - 1999 Property Tax

Homeowners enter your total 1999 property taxes due and paid on your principal residence in New Jersey. (If you received a senior citizen's and/or veteran's deduction, enter the amount of property taxes actually due and paid before the deduction(s) were subtracted.) Enter dollars and cents, one digit in each box (). Do not use dollar signs or dashes. If you did not pay the full amount of property taxes due by December 31, 1999, you are not eligible for the reimbursement.

2000 Form PTR-1 Instructions

Residents of cooperative dwelling units and continuing care retirement facilities must obtain a statement from their management indicating their share of property taxes paid for the residential unit they occupy.

Mobile Home Owners enter 18% of your 1999 site fees due and paid on your principal residence in New Jersey. Enter dollars and cents, one digit in each box (□). Do not use dollar signs or dashes. If you did not pay the full amount due by December 31, 1999, you are not eligible for the reimbursement.

Important

You must enclose verification of property taxes (or mobile home park site fees) due and paid with Form PTR-1. See page 4 for acceptable forms of proof.

Line 12 - Reimbursement Amount

Subtract Line 11 from Line 10 and enter the result on Line 12. Enter dollars and cents, one digit in each box (□). Do not use dollar signs or dashes. This is the amount of your 2000 Property Tax Reimbursement.

If the amount on Line 12 is zero or less than zero, you are not eligible for a Property Tax Reimbursement and you should not file this application.

Deceased Residents

If a person met the eligibility requirements on December 31, 2000 but died before filing an application, Form PTR-1 should be filed by the surviving spouse, executor, or administrator. Print "Deceased" and the date of death above the decedent's name. In the area where you sign the return write "Filing as Surviving Spouse," if appropriate. A personal representative filing the application must sign in his or her official capacity. Any reimbursement check will be issued to the surviving spouse or estate.

When a spouse dies prior to December 31, the marital status of the surviving spouse who was unmarried on December 31 of that year is "Single." If your spouse died during 2000 and your marital status on December 31, 2000 was single, your spouse's name should not appear on the application.

Signatures

Sign and date your Property Tax Reimbursement Application in ink. If your 2000 marital status is married, both husband and wife must sign the application. The signatures on the application you file must be original; photocopied signatures are not acceptable.

Tax Preparers. Anyone who prepares an application for a fee must sign the application as a "Paid Preparer" and enter his or her social security number or Federal preparer tax identification number. Include the company or corporation name and Federal identification number, if applicable. A tax preparer who fails to sign the application or provide a tax identification number may incur a $25 penalty for each omission. Someone who prepares your application but does not charge you should not sign your application.

Where to Send Your Application

When you have completed and signed your application, use the envelope provided in the booklet to mail the application and proof of property taxes (or mobile home park site fees) due and paid to:

NJ Division of Taxation
Revenue Processing Center
Property Tax Reimbursement
PO Box 635
Trenton, NJ 08646-0635

For information or help in completing your application, call the Property Tax Reimbursement Hotline at 1-800-882-6597 to speak to a Division of Taxation representative Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. (except holidays).

Who Can Help

Volunteers in the VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance) and TCE (Tax Counseling for the Elderly) Programs are available to help prepare the Property Tax Reimbursement application at some locations throughout New Jersey. For the location nearest you, call the Property Tax Reimbursement Hotline at 1-800-882-6597.

Important Points to Remember

- 1 Complete the entire application. Provide full information for both 1999 and 2000.
- 2 You must meet the eligibility requirements for both 1999 and 2000 to apply for the reimbursement.
- 3 Enclose copies of your 1999 and 2000 property tax bills and proof of payment. Mobile home owners, enclose documentation of annual site fees due and paid. (See instructions.)
- 4 File your application on or before March 15, 2001.
- 5 If you meet the eligibility requirements for both 1999 and 2000 you must file this application in order to use the amount of your 1999 property taxes to calculate your reimbursement in future years.

Caution!!!

This is not an application for a homestead rebate. You must file a separate Homestead Rebate Application (Form HR-1040) to apply for a homestead rebate.
